

Learning About College

Name _____

Now that you have read Learning About College, see if you can answer the following:

1. True False As a general rule, two-year colleges are much less expensive than four-year colleges.
2. True False Students can start at a two-year community college and transfer to a four-year college.
3. The best way to determine if a college is right for you is to do what? _____.
4. When determining whether or not to accept a student, what do colleges consider most important?
 grades in college prep classes ACT/SAT scores recommendations
5. A copy of your high school record is called a _____.
6. True False You must have a 3.0 GPA in high school to go to any two- or four-year college.
7. True False You need to know what your major is going to be when you start college.
8. Which of the following is important to you in a college?
 Size Location Admissions requirements
 Majors offered Other _____
9. What can you do to help put yourself on the path to college?
 Get better grades Make college visits
 Sign up for college prep courses Research college options
 Talk to your counselor about your plans Decide where to apply
 Learn about the ACT and SAT Talk to your parents about college

